Food Truck Feb

Hailing from Buenos Aires, Jere Sosa arrived in WA with a guitar & a head full of rich musical influences.

His approach is founded upon the melodic songwriting of The Beatles and the guitar playing finesse of Carlos Santana, with punk, jazz and Latin feels within the living-breathing mix.

Sosa retains a solid existence busking as a soloist, utilising a loop station that takes songs to new heights.

His debut album, "Coming back home in two footsteps" features "A Taste Of Honey", which won the 'World' category at the WAM Song Of The Year Awards in mid-2017.

The album itself offers a diversity of Sosa's musical spirit – many styles, many places, many sounds to revel in. And many good times indeed.
