INFORMATION STATEMENT

1. Structure and Functions of the Council

1.1 Overview

The Town of East Fremantle was created in 1897, when it separated from the Fremantle Municipal Council. We are an area of 3.2 square kilometres with a population of approximately 8,000 residents. Bordering the Swan River, our Town has a strong cultural heritage and supports a large range of sporting clubs and community organisations.

Green open space, and access to the river is highly valued in our Town, and we want to protect these features for future generations. Our community has a strong desire to maintain our heritage buildings and takes pride in our historic streetscapes. We recognise the need to plan effectively for population growth, whilst ensuring the unique character of our community and its heritage is not lost.

1.2 Council

The Council consists of the Mayor and eight (8) Council Members representing the Town of East Fremantle. The Mayor and Council Members are chosen democratically by the community and act in a voluntary capacity to represent the whole district of the Town of East Fremantle.

The Council Members form a corporate body working for the community and do not have the authority to act or make decisions as individuals. Decisions are made as a consensus of the Council in accordance with the Local Government Act 1995.

Ordinary meetings of Council are held on the third Tuesday of the months February through to November and on the second Tuesday during December. Commencement of these meetings is 6:00pm and members of the public are welcome to attend as observers in the Gallery.

The main business of these meeting is to consider and make decisions / resolutions on the recommendations on all matters presented to Council.

1.3 Agendas and minutes

Agendas and Minutes of the Council Meetings are available for inspection in the Town Hall during normal office hours, as well as being available on the Town's website at <http://www.eastfremantle.wa.gov.au>.

1.4 Delegated authority

The Chief Executive Officer has the delegated authority to make decisions on a number of specified administrative and policy matters. These delegations are listed and available for public inspection and are reviewed annually by Council.

In keeping with the legislative requirements, Council:

INFORMATION STATEMENT

- Determines policies to be applied by Council in exercising its discretionary powers;
- Determines the type, range and scope of projects to be undertaken by Council; and
- Develops comprehensive management plans, budgets and financial controls for the operations of the Council.

The Council makes decisions which direct and / or determine its activities and functions. Such decisions include the approval of works and services to be undertaken, and the allocation of resources for works and services.

Decisions are also made to determine whether or not approval is to be granted for applications for residential or commercial development.

2. Enabling Legislation

The general function of a local government is to provide for the good government of people living and working within its district and includes legislative and executive powers and responsibilities.

Using its legislative powers, local governments make local laws prescribing all matters that are required or permitted to be prescribed by a local law, or are necessary or convenient to be so prescribed for it to perform any of its functions under the Local Government Act.

INFORMATION STATEMENT

4.2 Community consultation

The Town of East Fremantle consults with local residents on particular issues that affect their neighbourhood by way of advertising in the local papers, calling public meetings and seeking responses to surveys and questionnaires.

Requests for other information will be considered in accordance with the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 1992 (WA) "the FOI Act". Under this legislation, fees and charges do apply.

4.3 Website

The Town's website provides for members of the public to report issues and submit queries or comments via webforms.

5. FOI Application Procedure

5.1 Introduction

The FOI Act describes the Town's obligations in providing access to a member of the public to all documents which the Town holds.

If access is sought to documents other than those detailed in Section 6 of this document, then it may be necessary to lodge an application under the Act. The application should be lodged with the Town via the Town's web form and detail the documents that are sought.

To ascertain whether an FOI Application is required, people seeking access to a document/s held by the Town of East Fremantle are encouraged to telephone the Town and speak to the Freedom of Information Coordinator prior to lodging an Application.

5.2 Freedom of Information applications

The FOI Act specifies that an application has to:

- Be in writing
- Give enough information to enable the requested documents to be identified
- Give an address in Australia to which notices may be sent
- Give any other information or regulations that may assist to locate the required document
- Be lodged at the Town Hall with application payment of the prescribed amount as set in the Freedom of Information Regulations 1993.

5.2.1 Important information

The Local Government is an Agency under the FOI Act.

Agencies are to give effect to the FOI Act in a way that:

- Assists the public to obtain access to documents;
- Allows prompt access to documents at the lowest reasonable cost; and
- Assists the public to ensure that personal information contained in documents is accurate, complete, up to date and not misleading.

INFORMATION STATEMENT

What constitutes a document?

The FOI Act defines the word 'document' to mean any 'record' or any part or copy of the record. The word 'record' is defined as all forms of recorded information including papers, plans, maps, drawings, audio and video recordings and computer records.

The FOI Act also creates two special categories of document which agencies are obliged to make available to members of the public: an Information Statement and internal resources which guide the agency in the day to day performance of its FOI responsibilities.

Forms of Access

The Town may give access to documents in a variety of ways and these reflect the carrying nature of document. The methods include:

- physical inspection;
- providing a copy of a document;
- providing a copy of any audio or video tape;
- providing a transcript of an audio recording;
- providing a print out of computer stored information;
- a viewing of visual images; and
- listening to an audio recording.

Where access to documents by way of inspection is requested, it is the condition of the Town to provide supervision by staff and where the Town is unable to grant access in the form requested, access may be given in a different form.

Notice of Decision

Within forty five (45) calendar days from the date the Town accepts a valid application and payment, the applicant will be provided with a Notice of Decision, which will include such details as:

- The date which the decision was made;
- The name and the designation of the officer who made the decision;
- If the document(s) is classified 'exempt' or 'edited' the reason for classifying the document(s) as such is supplied; and

INFORMATION STATEMENT

- Information on the Right to Review and the procedures to be followed to exercise those rights.

Applicants who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Town are entitled to ask for an Internal Review by the Town. An Application for Internal Review are to be made in writing within thirty (30) days of receiving the Notice of Decision.

The applicant will be notified of the outcome of the Internal Review within fifteen (15) days.

If the applicant disagrees with the result, they can apply to the Information Commissioner for an External Review. The Town will provide details on this process with the outcome of the Internal Review.

5.3 Freedom of Information responsibilities

Principal Officer

The Principal Officer is responsible for the Internal Review process. If the Principal Officer makes the initial decision to refuse access to documents, there is no right of Internal Review and in this case the applicant must make an External Review request to the Information Commissioner.

Freedom of Information (FOI) Coordinator

The FOI Coordinator manages and coordinates all FOI Activities and liaises with the Principal Officer and decision makers. The FOI Coordinator:

- Records all work flow and time management details;
- Calculates projected costs, final cost and time spent processing the application;
- Gives access;
- Gives access to an edited copy;
- Refuses to deal with an application;
- Refuses access; or
- Defers access;

INFORMATION STATEMENT

6. Access to Documents

The Town is required to adhere to the State Records Act 2000 (WA) and this means that any right a person may have to be given access to any record the Town holds is to be determined under the Freedom of Information Act.

However, the Local Government Act 1995 (WA), Section 5.94 Public can inspect certain local government information, provides local governments with direction on what documents a local government is permitted to provide the public with access to outside of the Freedom of Information Act.

Some documents listed in the above section under the Local Government Act 1995 (WA), Section 5.94 may not be easily accessible and members of the public should contact the Town to arrange a time to view these documents.

Members of the public may obtain copies of these documents. A list of all charges are included in the Town's Schedule of Fees and Charges.

Retention and disposal of the Town of East Fremantle records

All of the Town's records are retained in accordance with the State Records Act 2000 (WA), Local Government Retention and Disposal Schedule. This schedule stipulates how long a record must be kept and be available for inspection.

6.2 Documents held by the Town of East Fremantle

Correspondence Files

The Town of East Fremantle manages a number of correspondence file series as described below. All files are subject to disposal in accordance with the current Local Government Records Retention and Disposal Schedule.

Current Files

These files are located at the Town Hall, with an electronic file and correspondence register available. The majority of files relate to specific property / street addresses, roads and reserves/parks, with a number of subject files relating to organisations, events, services provided, special projects and general administrative issues also forming part of the current filing system.

Archived Files

These files are located at the Town Hall and in an offsite storage facility. The majority of these files are subject files relating to other organisations, events, services provided, special projects and general administrative issues.

Council Minutes

Under the Local Government Act 1995 (WA) Council minutes are available for free inspection at the Town Hall by any person. A hard copy of the current minutes is available for viewing only.

INFORMATION STATEMENT

Council Minutes are available 10 days after the Council Meeting. Once the Minutes have been confirmed they are posted on the Town's website at www.eastfremantle.wa.gov.au. The Town's web site contains Council Minutes from 2007 to present.

Rates Books

Currently the Town of East Fremantle information is listed by Assessment Number or property address. When searching for historical rates information the property address, and lot number where possible are required to retrieve the relevant information.

Rates Books are stored in hard copy only at an offsite storage facility. Fees apply for the retrieval of Rates Books.

Landgate is the official custodian of land ownership information. It is recommended that a title search be conducted through Landgate if this type of information is sought.

Building / Development applications

As the authority responsible for granting planning approval for development and issuing building licenses, the Town of East Fremantle has a vast record of drawings and plans of buildings within the area. The drawings and plans can include site plans, floor plans, elevations and in some cases perspective drawings.

Access to this information is available subject to the consent of the current owner of the property. Information about the year of construction, builder details and cost of construction can also be obtained. Charges apply for obtaining this information and the availability of plans in all instances cannot be assured. Contact the Town for more information.

Municipal Heritage Inventory

Under the Heritage of Western Australia Act 1990 (WA) the Town of East Fremantle is required to prepare a Municipal Heritage Inventory. This is an inventory of all places within the Town of East Fremantle boundaries that are or may become of cultural heritage significance to the community. Details in the inventory include property address, ownership, description, statement of significance, bibliography, listing status and an image of each place.

State Records Office

The State Records Office is located on the Ground Floor of the Alexander Library Building, Perth Cultural Centre. The State Records Office is the official repository for all state archives, with the State Records Office taking responsibility for the management and access to information transferred from government agencies such as the Town of East Fremantle.

State Records Office staff can assist you to locate archival material relevant to your search, with various indexes available at their offices. The State Records Office Search Room is open as per details on their website and access to information held by the State Records Office is free of charge. Contact the State Records Office on Ph: (08) 9427 3600 for more information.

6.3 Amendment of personal information

Under the Privacy Responsibility and Information Sharing Act 2024 (the “PRIS” Act) a person has the right to access and correct their personal information. Property owners, residents and business operators in the Town bear the responsibility of informing the Town of changes to their contact details. An application can be made to the Town’s Privacy Officer to correct or amend any documents containing an individual’s personal information that is inaccurate.

The application must be in writing, providing details and, if necessary, documentation to support claims that the information they are seeking to have amended is inaccurate, incomplete, out-of-date, or misleading.

The Town is not to make the amendment by obliterating, or removing information, or destroying a document unless the prejudice or disadvantage to the person outweighs the public interest in maintaining a public record. The Information Commissioner of Western Australia must be notified before a record is obliterated or destroyed.
