Message from the Chief Executive Officer

To maintain our high standards, it is important that we have principles that guide our day-to-day activities. The community expects impartial, efficient service delivered with integrity.

The Town of East Fremantle's Employee Code of Conduct (the Code) is an extension of our values and is a foundation for our long-term success.

Ethical behaviour is an integral part of our culture, a culture that defines who we are, how we are perceived by the community and how we treat our colleagues. Through openness and integrity, the Code ensures that we comply with procedures that reflect the highest standards of corporate governance.

Without exception, all staff are required to adhere to the standards of conduct and behaviour outlined in the Code as a minimum.

Please take time to familiarise yourself with your obligations under this Code and continue to refer to it as you perform your duties. If you require further clarification on the Code or any of your obligations outlined, please speak with your manager.

Gary Tuffin
Chief Executive Officer

1 Introduction

The Town of East Fremantle's Code of Conduct (the Code) provides employees with clear guidelines for the standards of professional conduct expected of them in carrying out their functions and responsibilities.

The Code addresses the broader issue of ethical responsibility and encourages transparency and accountability. The Code expresses the Town of East Fremantle's commitment to high standards of ethical and professional behaviour and outlines the principles in which individual responsibilities are based.

The Code is complementary to the principles adopted in the Local Government Act 1995 (the Act) and associated regulations, which incorporate four fundamental aims:

- (a) better decision-making by local governments;
- (b) greater community participation in the decisions and affairs of local governments;
- (c) greater accountability of local governments to their communities; and
- (d) more efficient and effective local government.

1.1 Statutory environment

The Code addresses the requirement in section 5.51A of the Act for the CEO to prepare and implement a code of conduct to be observed by employees of the Local Government, and includes the matters prescribed in Part 4A of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996.

The Code should be read in conjunction with the Act and associated regulations. Employees should ensure that they are aware of their statutory responsibilities under this and other legislation.

1.2 Application

For the purposes of the Code, the term employees includes persons employed by the Town of East Fremantle or engaged by the Town of East Fremantle under a contract for services. The Code applies to all employees, including the CEO, while on the Local Government's premises or while engaged in Local Government related activities. Clause 3.15 of this Code (Gifts), does not apply to the CEO.

In accordance with regulations 19AB and 19AC of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996, this Code does not apply to the CEO in relation to gifts. Instead, the CEO is subject to the requirements of Part 5, Division 6 of the Act in relation to gifts. In particular, sections 5.71A and 5.71B of the Act define the CEO's obligations for disclosure and management of conflicts of interest arising from the acceptance of gifts, when providing advice or reports to Council either directly or indirectly.
